THE CONVENTION

The Democratic convention held vesterday, was fairly represented, and the result beneficial to the Democratic party in its respectability. There was entire harmony, and nothing occurred to mar the fraternal feeling existing between city and country. The Delegates elected to the Territorial convention all announced their preference for Granville H. Oury, and their intention to vote for his nomination.

There was no dissent in the convention as to Mr. Oury, but on the contrary much enthusiasm whenever his name was mentioned. The apportionment of representation in the county central committee was good in the fact that the majority was given to the country, and yet a quorum left in the city so there can be no close in the transaction of bustness. Altogether the convention could not have been impraved upon, or the organization of the Democratic party of Cochise county made more

In this number of the EPITAPH is published the statement of L. W. Carr, ex-foreman of the late grand jury, relative to the missing portions of the report of that body. Mr. Carr's explanation entirely exonerates him from any blame in the premises. The report of the sub-committee was overlooked from natural causes, and will be handed into Court in due time. The matter contained in Mr. Carr's statement, pertaining to the disposition of the county warrant due him for services upon the grand jury, presents very curious features. The letters of the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors are exactly contradictory, and one of them assumes a power hardly given the writer by law. ihe number of days service of Mr. Carr as a grand juror, was certified to the Board and the bill allowed by that oody, which adjourned. Certainly the Clerk had no right to assume ministerial functions, and contravene the action of the Board on his own motion. It is nedessary to state that as soon as the Chairman of the Board understood the matter, he at once directed the delivery of the warrant to Mr. Carr.

THE claim made by Judge Brittain, in the convention, that the Secretary of a deliberative body should be chosen outside of that body, was proper and just. All the members should be left free to deliberate. Both the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States elect their Secretaries and Clerks from the outside.

Judge Berry made a good and impartial Chairman of the convention, and as the head of the County Central Committee will undoubtedly exercise the full power of his excellent judgment towards securing the success of his party. No better Secretary than Frank Boarman could have been chosen.

WE have received telegraphic information that the delegates elected on Saturday to the Yuma county convention, are all Oury men. Haying resided there so long, we feel privileged to congratulate the Democrats of Yuma on the excellence of their judgment.

THE EPITAPH feels highly complimented and exceedingly grateful for the endorsement given its course by the Democritic party of Cochise county. We shall continue to make this journal, politically, only a consistent party paper.

DELEGATE OURY, when writtengto by friends, refused to leave his post of duty in any effort to secure his re-nomination. to think the Democratic convention should properly have been held in Joyce's saloon. The Republicans, with an equal show of reason, can coat tails, or in Dibble's vest pocket.

YESTERDAY'S number of the Republican contains a long editorial eulogistic of old Democratic warhorses. We entirely concur in all its conclusions.

WE suggest that the Democratic County Central Committee issue an address to the Democrats of Cochise
